PRESIDENT'S HEALTH IS GOOD

HE TRANSACTS CONSIDERABLE ROUTINE BUSINESS.

But Cannot Move About His Room Without Assistance He Will Probably Return to Oyster Bay as Soon as He Can Walk.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26. - President Roosewelt transacted a good deal of official routine business to-day, although he is still activity. unable to leave his room or even to move about the apartment without assistance. He signed a large number of letters and official documents and considered a number of matters of administration business that were brought to his attention by Secretary Cortelyou and members of the Cabinet. The President's condition continued satisfactory to-day and his general health is

The President, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, will probably return to Oyster Bay as soon as he has sufficiently recovered to walk about and use his injured leg with satisfaction. The lack of space and of privacy about the temporary residence in Washington makes it desirable to return to his Long Island home. Mrs. Roosevelt will spend several weeks at Oyster Bay, not coming to Washington to take up her permanent residence until after the November elections. The length of the President's visit will depend open business here. Ethel, the younger daughter of the President, and Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Archibald and a maid, will reach Washington on Tuesday so that they may Bay as soon as he has sufficiently recovered panied by Archibald and a maid, which can Washington on Tuesday so that they may attend school. Thompson, nominated to be Minister to Brazil, has been prominent in Nebraska politics for six years. He was a candidate for United States Senator in the Republican caucuses before the last two sessions of the Legislature. Mr. Thompson said this evening that the news of his appointment came as a surprise to him, and he was not prepared to say that he would accept. Mr. Thompson's business interests in Nebraska are extensive. One of his latest enterprises is the establishment in Lincoln of an evening newspaper, the first issue of which is to

NO MORE MARINES NEEDED. Force Now on the Isthmus Sufficient to Keep Trame Open.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26,-The present indications are that it will not be necessary to send an additional force of marines to Colombia at this time. Capt. McLean has advised the Navy Department that the Governor of Panama has protested against the force now guarding the railroad on the Isthmus. The Governor insisted that the Colombian troops were in sufficient force to maintain order on the Isthmus and keep the traffic open, but he did not satisfy Capt. McLean, and, acting under instructions from Secretary Moody, he will continue to guard the railroad.

A despatch was received at the Bureau Navigation this afternoon from Capt. Lean, in which he said that in view McLean, in which he said that in view of the present situation the United States force now on the Isthmus would be sufficient. An official statement issued at the Navy Department adds: "Accordingly no more marines need

A BOX OF CURE-ALL SALVE.

Postmaster-General Payne Gets It by Mall and Will "Try It on the Dog."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 - A package addressed to Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne and containing a box of salve guaranteed to cure all physical ailments, from toothache to chiiblains, was received at the Post Office Department to-day from Magnus A. Hess of Chicago, who calls himself "The Original McKinley Man." In an explanatory note Hess says the salve was made by his sister-in-law, who is a seventh daughter of a seventh daughter, and derives added virtue from this ter, and derives added virtue from this fact, besides possessing marvellous curative powers through the combination of simple remedies of which it is made. If the Postmaster-General is afflicted with the stomachache, the letter says, he is to apply a small portion of the salve with a rotary motion, and the quick results are promised to exceed those obtained by the use of any painkiller taken internally.

Mr. Payne will follow the ancient rule of "trying it on the dog," and the first time one of his messengers is afflicted with a pain the salve will be used and its results roted.

AGAINST PARTISAN ACTIVITY. Warning to Officers and Employees of the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Acting Secretary of War Sanger has issued a circular of warning to officers and employees of the War Department against political assessments and partisan activity of officeholders. The circular quotes from the laws of Congress on the subject, and invites attention to the following extracts from executive instructions on the question of partisan activity.

Officeholders are the agents of the people, not their masters. Not only is their time and labor due to the Government, but they should scrupulously avoid, in their political action as well as in the discharge of their official duty, offending, by display of obtrustive partisanship, their neighbors who have relations with them as public officers.

They should also constantly remember that their party friends, from whom they have received preferment, have not invested them with the power of arbitrarily managing their political affairs. They have no right as office holders to dictate the political action of their party associates, or to throttle freedom of action within party lines by methods and practices which pervert every useful and justifiable purrose of party orgalization.

The influence of Federal officeholders should not be felt in the manipulation of political primary meetings and reminating conventions. The use by the officials of their positions to compass their selection as delegates to political conventions is indecent and unfair, and proper regard for the proprieties and requirements of official place will also prevent their assuming the active conduct of political campaigns.

FIGHTING NEAR CAPE HAYTIEN. Rebels Repulsed in a Series of Engagements Blockade of Ports Not Effective. WASHINGTON, Sept. 26. Several days ago Minister Powell at Hayti cabled that the Haytian Government announced the dosing of the ports of Gonaives and St.

Mare. Minister Poweil was asked for a supplemental report as to the effective-ness of the blockade of these ports, which have been in possession of the insurgents. 8 retary Moody also asked the commander of the Montgomery at Cape Haytien to report on the same subject and this after-noon his reply was received at the Bureau of Navigation. It follows:

Blockade not effective. The position of the insurgents is at a distance of eighteen indes from Cape Haytien. The Haytian troops are now concentrated. A series of encagements maye taken place, resulting in a victory near Cape Haytien. The objective point of insurgents, if defented, was to have been Gon-Les, their headquarters. United States critices at Terre Nueve are safe. Everything is quiet at Haytian scaports.

It is helicard from this information opinions of the physicians who performed the operation.

It is believed from this information that the Haytian troops are concentrated at Cape Haytien and that a series of engagements were fought recently around hat place, resulting in the replies of the

LIGHT ON A JERSEY MYSTERY

POSTMASTER GARDNER PROBA-BLY KILLED HARRY YOUNG.

Young Was Found Dead at Millville Three Weeks Ago, a Bullet Wound in His Breast-The Night Before Gardner

Took Two Shots at a Burglar VINELAND, N. J., Sept. 26.—The mystery surrounding the killing of Harry Young, the tramp barnessmaker, whose body, with a bullet wound in the breast, was found at Millville three weeks ago, has at last been solved.

It is believed that Young received his wound at the hands of Postmaster Theodore A. Gardner of South Vineland, who mistook him for a burglar. Gardner, who conducts a grocery store, is one of the most prominent citizens of South Vineland.

Theodore A. Gardner could not be found at his home to-day, but his son, Sidney, said his father has for the past two weeks been visiting in New York. When questioned regarding the shooting of Young. Sidney Gardner at first refused to talk, but he finally made a full explanation in the following statement:

'About 1 o'clock in the morning of Sept. 8 father and I heard a noise on our front porch which sounded as if a robber was trying to get into the store. We quickly dressed ourselves, and after father procured his revolver we went down stairs and out of the house in search of the supposed burglar, but failed to see him. We heard a suspicious noise underneath the floor of the porch, however, and father called out, warning the man to go away or he would shoot. After waiting a few minutes and hearing no response father fired twice into the darkness After listening a few minutes longer and hearing no further noise father and I went into the house and back was found at Millville in the rear of a row of buildings known as "Yellow Hell." Deat! was apparently the result of a bullet wound was apparently the result of a billiet wound, in the breast under the arm. The fact that the coat worn by Young showed no signs of a bullet hole puzzled the police, and led many to believe that the man had been shot while attempting a robbery.

Shot while attempting a robbery.

The hearing of pistol shots by neighbors of Gardner at South Vineland aroused little comment until after the news of the finding of Young's body at Millville. Then the story slowly leaked out.

The fact that Gardner left here after the shooting and has not returned along in shorting and has not returned since, in-dicates in the opinion of people here that he realized what he had done as soon as he heard of Young's death. Although Gardner's son says he is in New York, he is known to be stopping with his cousin, DeWitt C. Thompson, in Gardnerville, about ten miles from Middletown, N. Y.

ILL-TREATMENT OF JEWS. Roumanian Law as to Taking the Oath When a Jew Sues or Is Sued.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. VIENNA, Sept. 28. - A disclosure of the conditions under which Jews live in Roumania is appearing in the Pester L'oy's. It includes an account of an amazing oath in the alleged Jewish style which the courts of Roumania are entitled to impose where one litigant is a Christian and the other a Jew. The Jew is compelled to put on his ritual grave clothes, his nails are cut and he is placed in a coffin, which is set before the altar in a synagogue, where the rabbi has to invoke curses and maledictions upon him and every member of his family unless he tells the truth and nothing but the truth. The man in the open coffin is bound to repeat these curses upon himself. If he fails to do so he loses the lawsuit against the Christian. This barbarous ceremony is conducted before the whole community. The synagogue must remain open to every non-Jew wishing to enter

This method of administering an eath fell into disuse some years ago, but it is still the law and a number of anti-Semite Judges revived it last year. Dr. Nacht the rabbi at Fokshani, refused to countenance the shameful ceremony. His refusal led to a controversy as to whether this was the devish style of oath countenanced v the Mosaic I

The rabbi at Bucharest and a number of others proved that it was not and a movement was started to have it abolished by the legislature. This was without result, and consequently a Jew may be compelled to take oath in the foregoing manner if the thristian litigant desires it and the Judge consents.

This contemptuous attitude of Roumanan legislation to the Jewish race led to the emigration of the vounger and abler men. Now that passports have been refused been it is difficult to say what they will do The action of the United States does not appear to have had even a moral effect.

As a mitter o fact not a si gle Contiental Power has done anything. The only step taken is that Roumania has sent to the Marquis of Lansdowne, the British Foreign Secretary, a long statement of its position oward the Powers and asking if the British Government concurred in the circular of Mr. Hay, the American Secretary of State. It i understood that the Marquis of Lansdowne will send a long reply to the communication.

TO REPLACE OUR COTTON. British Mill Owners Unite to Encourage Its Growth in the Colonies.

Special Cable Desputch to THE See LONDON, Sept. 26.-It is reported that the Government is assisting with money and advice a movement started by the Lancashire cotton spinners to obtain raw material from British territories.

Hitherto five-sixths of the cotton used has been obtained from the United States. Partial failure of the crops for three years and speculative manipulation of prices have produced an alarming shortage

The English manufacturers have consequently formed the British Cotton Growing Association. Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and the colonial Governors are going to help the movement The chairman of the association says that steps are being taken to improve the quality and increase the output for Indian cotton. Efforts to raise cotton will be made in the Soudan where millions of acres of land are available. Planting will be greatly developed when the Suakim-Berber Railway is in operation.

The chief hopes of the association are centred in West Africa, which is capable of supplying 3,000,000 bales annually, which is all that the Lancashire spinners require. ed has been sent to the Gold Coast Sierra Leone, Lagos and southern Nigeria. Prizes are offered to the native chiefs in Lagos for growing cotton and for cotton grown in that country.

A BULLET IN HER HEART. Young Alice C. Bidwell of Philmont Com-

mits Suicide. HUDSON, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The people of Philmoni are trying to solve the question why pretty young Alice C. Bidwell fired a bullet into her heart this morning. Accomplished, in good health and spirits, and with a modest fortune in her own right, they cannot understand why she killed herself. She had never shown any despondency, nor had any insanity been in her family. Both her parents are dead and she, with a brother, lived in the old homestead, between Mellenville and Phi'mont. She was 25 years of age and a graduate of Claverack College.

This morning her brother Clarles got ip about 6:30 o'clock, and before he left the house to do some chores at the barn she was up, and he saw her preparing the breakfast and setting the table. That was the last he saw her alive. At about 8 o'clock, while attending to his chores, he heard the report of a pistol coming from the direc-tion of the house. It alarmed him, and going back to the house he went to his sister's room and found her living dead in a pool of blood. On the floor tay a .32calibre revolver, with one chamber empty. There was every evidence of her preparing for the suicide. She had taken of her guments put on a nightdress and lain come upon a bed newly made. ### YOUNG GIRL KILLS HERSELF.

Her Foster Mother Had Chided Her for Recoing the Company of Young Men.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 16 - Miss Ethel Belle McChesney a beautiful young girl and a former student at the Syracuse High School, ended her life at noon to-day by sending a bullet through her brain. She was 19 years old. The only reason that can be found for the girl's act was the fact that her foster mother had spoken harshly to her last night for her inclination to keep the company of young men.

The girl was a striking brunette and was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. George A. McChesney. For some time McChesney has not been living with his wife, and the girl and herefore may be a live for the live of the li her foster mother lived in an upper flat in Linden street. At noon to-day Mrs. McChesney could not get into her rooms and called to a neighbor to help her. The girl had locked every door mittance was finally gained Mrs. McChesney saw her daughter on the bed, and around her right hand a handkerchief had been wrapped covering a 32-calibre revolver. She had buried her head in the pillow to muffle the sound and fired the bullet into her temple.

Body of the Negro Who Shot Constable Buck Found in a Pond. BRIDGETON, N.J., Sept. 28. Samuel Greenage, the twenty-eight-year-old negro who shot and killed Constable Harry Buck who was arresting him in Greenwich towrship yesterday and then shot and wounded Mrs. Rhoda Greenage, his young wife, ended his career by his ownhand, as was shown to-day. He shot himself in the mouth and then jumped into Seeley's mill pond where his body was found at 11 o'clock to-day.

Around his lips were powder marks. Mrs. Greenage will recover from her wounds.

Richfield Springs Hotel Sold. RICHFIELD STRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 26. The Hotel Brunswick was transferred to day to Jerry Cronin, the lessee, for $6,100. The property is desirably located on Main street and adjoins the First National Bank building. The original structure was a popular road house on the Albany turn-pike and the rendezvous of well-known New Yorkers when a coach and four was the only means of communication between Otsego and Albany. Fletcher Harper, Judge Henry L. Clinton and Recorder Smyth were ## among the older day guests.

The Evening Sun

TO-DAY

Contains a number of features of interest. In the first place, it will publish all the news, the fullest accounts of the financial operations of Wall Street and the world, the church announcements for the coming Sabbath, musical, literary, theatrical and educational notes, and all the regular EVENING SUN de-pertments. In addition:

The Tomb or the Street?

It is proposed to run a street in New York city over the grave of one of the most famous of American poets. It will probably not be done, now that public attention is called to the desceration. (Illustrated).

A Sportsman of the Labrador Shore Jean Beetz, the Belgian, and his home in fer north-castern Quebec. (Illustrated from photographs taken Pipes of the Reign of James I. Interesting examples in the collection of a New Yorker. (Illustrated).

From Hong-Kong to Canton A trip by steamboat up the Pearl River. (Illustrated).

Folk-Lore The first of an interesting and authoritative series.

These are some. The sporting department will be more interesting than usual. Football is beginning to boom. There is little decrease in the interest in racing. THE EVENING SUN treats both subjects fully. Capt. King's absorbing serial is about closing.

Sweet as the breath of the oatfield when summer is young is the delicate fragrance of H-O.

H-O pancakes are just as easily made as ordinary griddle cakes, but they taste better. That good taste is put into them by adding H-O. Porridge left over from breakfast can be used for next day's pancakes.
